ONE HIT' AND A SHUTOUT

Gallivan Has Killingly High Beaten, 3 to 0-A Fitching Duel-For First Time King Wins Derby-Pittsburg Increases Lead.

Honors were all with Jackle Gallivan Wednesday afternoon on the Academy campus in a pitching duel with Cap-tain Marland of Killingly High, and the Academy twirler brought the red and white home winners in a shutout contest, 3 to 0, in which the Killingly invaders not but a simple bit of Gallicontest, 3 to 0, in which the Kliffingly invaders got but a single hit off Gallivan, and that in the first inning. By the most spectacular catch on record on the Academy campus Captain Noyes saved Gallivan the only other possible hit, fairly picking the ball off the wire fence in left field as it came down over his shoulder with his back to the field.

With Gallivan's home run swat to the dirt pile, the ball rolling under the fence, these constituted the features of the game with the star pitching and van was tuned up to concert witch nd shot them over the size of a pea, o that the Killingly batters were so that them over the size of a pea, so that the Killingly batters were breaking their backs in an effort to connect. Gallivan fanned 17, which is within 5 of his record of 22 at Cushing, and Mariand got 10 on strikeouts. Second base was as far as Killingly could penetrate the Academy defense, two runners dying there in the nine innings. Helpin carried off the strikeout honors for Killingly, fanning every time out of three, and Murphy went him one better by whiffing fruitlessly tweive times at the ball.

Gallivans' home run in the second made the first score for the Academy and they put on two more in their last turn at bat. Captain Noyes started the eighth by nearly ripping Marland's fingers off with a liner and stealing second by a great slide. Ricketts put one between the buildings for three bags, scoring Noyes, and Hendrick's single scored Steve for the last tally. Hendrick stole but the next three were out in a row.

Hobe Ferris Pictured. The Baseball Magazine for June, in an article on St. Louis baseball history, pictures Hobe Ferris, the former Norwich player, who is with the St. Louis Americans. It says the season of 1908 showed manifest improvement for the Browns and they finished in fourth place. This result was made possible by the infusion of new blood in the team. Ferris was secured from Bos-ton, Williams from New York and Waddell from Philadelphia.

It was a Waterloo for the hotel play-It was a Waterloo for the hotel players, largely through the rank support they gave their battery, Boucher and Greenwood. In the seven innings played Boucher fanned 14 of the 21 needed to retire the Hospitals, but the winners did some hard hitting and made merry over the miscues of White and Devine at third and short, who were all to the bad. Haley's work at second and a double play, unassisted, by Joe Sullivan at first, as well as the hitting of Boucher, were the strong features of the Walters' game.

Zemke had the Walters guessing and the team behind him played errorless.
